

200+ of The Best App Review Sites To Submit Your Mobile App

Even the most well-designed and innovative apps can go unnoticed among over 3 million app across app stores. Have you submitted your mobile app to app review sites yet?

According to a recent Google-Ipsos survey, 52% of awareness for apps comes from friends, family and colleagues, essentially word of mouth marketing. Getting positive app reviews can help you get more downloads and better visibility.

However, having app reviews on App Store is not enough.

Getting your app reviewed on a popular app review sites, blogs, or publication works better. Favourable app reviews on one of these sites can expose your app to a whole new audience and help you get more downloads.

In this post we are giving you a list of 200+ resources covering top app review sites, blogs, YouTube channels, and even app discovery platforms to submit your app to. This app review sites list will allow you to submit your app details such as app description, landing page URL, funding information, founder details, sometimes a demo video, etc. to their website.

After all, you never know where you'd discover your potential customer.

However, just this app review sites list won't help you get featured. Approach each one of them with the right pitch, giving proper details of your app. Also, don't forget to test your app for crashes and bugs before submitting it on any app review sites. I am sure you are not interested in any kind of negative publicity or why take the chance of not getting published because of a faulty app.

Here is a list of 200+ app review sites to submit your mobile app:
